

February 23, 2009

On 2/18 South Effingham competed in the Regional SkillsUSA championships where Kevin Strickland won 2nd place in Plumbing and Lee Hodges won 2nd place in Masonry. These two students will go on the State level to represent our school.

The South Effingham Wrestling Team finished 4th in the State this past weekend in Atlanta! They competed like the true "Champions" that they are! Their actions both on and off the mat demonstrated nothing but first class as Gentlemen and as Warriors! School history was made as Robbie Collum became our schools first State Champion at 140 lbs., Alex Wendell finished second place at 119 lbs. and Josh Jameson earned 6th place honors at 130 lbs. Brad Boyd and Brandon Huggins both finished 1 win shy of earning All State Honors! While Cameron Collum, Michael Baggott and Luis Guerrero competed valiantly! Please congratulate these gentlemen as you see them in the hallway or have them in class.

Also, to be noted are Congratulations to our cross county rivals, Effingham County High School, for being GHSA 4A 2009 Wrestling State Champions. This is great feat for any program within our county and deserves kudos for what they have earned in a very competitive and grueling tournament.
