

SEHS cheerleaders are hosting a golf tournament this Saturday @ Lost Plantation – See Coach Morgan in room 702 if you are interested.

All cheerleaders need to see Coach Morgan today during or after lunch.

Science Club and Olympiad will meet this Friday after school for a pizza party, planning for next year, and electing next years officers! Meeting is in room 112 and begins at 3:45!

Attention soccer players don't forget about the soccer banquet tonight at 6:45.

All track participants please turn in your uniforms before Friday. There will be a hold put on your records if they are not turned in by May 1st.

Humanities Club will meet Thursday after school in Ms. Denney's room 402. This meeting is mandatory for all Humanities club members.

Seniors: Clio Homemakers Club Scholarship is now available. You must have an acceptance letter from a college BEFORE you apply. Applications are due May 1 by NOON to Ms. Christensen.

Attention all students: this week during lunch fashion show tickets will be on sale for $5.00 for students only. Come see our table to buy your tickets at this special student price. The fashion show is this Saturday, May 2 at 7:00 pm in the SEHS cafeteria. Don't miss this awesome, one-of-a-kind runway show and opportunity to see designs by your classmates!

Reminder the Student Council will have their final meeting this Weds. at 3:30 in the Library. Please let Mrs. Soles know if this is a problem.

Last chance for Cap and Gowns. They will be redelivered on Friday, May 1st.

The final vote Prom King, Queen, Prince and Princess will be voted on during lunch today.

This Friday, May 1st has been designated by the Board of Education as American Diabetes, Kiss-a-pig, Denim Day for all staff and students for a voluntary donation of one dollar. We are competing against all the other schools in the County. The winning school principal will have the honor of kissing Hamlet the pig. Please make sure to support our School in the event. . Dr. Winters is looking forward to kissing Hamlet the pig if South High collects the most money.