

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

November 15, 2011

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- The Library Gold Star Winner for last week was 10th grader, Carter Phung. Congratulations! Stop by the Media Center to pick up your prize.
- Today, November 15th, is American Enterprise Day! A day to celebrate the free market system in which our country operates. Can you guess this entrepreneur? Turn in your answer during lunch to the Stang Zone and the first right answer drawn will receive a gift card to the Stang Zone for $10.00.
 - In the early 1900s I manufactured a product using mass production and marketed this product nationally for the first time. I opened an orphanage and hotel and created a town named after me that became a tremendous tourist attraction. Even the street lights represent the product in which my success began. I am a huge philanthropist. Who am I?
