

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

November 23, 2009

- Model U.N. will meet in Room 403 Tuesday, November 24th until 4:30.
- Students interested in joining the "Mock Trial Team" need to meet after school in Room 403 Tuesday, November 24th until 4:30.
- Any one that is interested in the spring musical, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" may stay after school next Tuesday to watch a DVD of the show. Bring your popcorn and sodas. The video will be played in the chorus room starting at 3:45 and will last until around 5:30.
- Students please come by the Discipline Office to pick up any clothing articles that have been left due to dress code violations. Items not collected November 24th they will be sent to Goodwill.
- FCCLA will meet this Tuesday, December 1st. We will decorate boxes for Toys for Tots and have pizza.
- There will be an FBLA meeting Tuesday, November 24th at 3:45 in Room 305. Any member or future member who wishes to compete at the Region Leadership Conference should attend. The meeting is mandatory for all members attending the Fall Leadership Conference December 4th.
- The Library Gold Star Winner for the last week is 12th Grader: Zakiya Rushin. Congratulations! Stop by the Media Center to pick up your prize!
- The South Effingham NJROTC Drill, Athletic and Academic team competed at Orange Park High School in Jacksonville Saturday against 16 other schools. Overall the team finished fifth, qualifying them for a wild card meet in February leading to the Georgia, North Florida NJROTC Championship meet. The team finished 2nd in Armed Exhibition Drill and Situps, 4th in Academics and Athletics and 5th in Unarmed Exhibition Drill and Color Guard. Individuals who received awards were Justin Lawson, Romell Boyce, Chris Carson, Kim Austin and Will Randle.