

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

September 30, 2009

- Senior Ads will be on sale today through October 1st in the lunchroom during all lunches and immediately after school today (9/30) until 4:30. The final deadline to buy a senior ad is October 1st at 4:30. Information Packets were sent home with all seniors on September 14th – additional packets are available in the front office.
- Current National Honor Society members, remember your dues are $10 and must be paid to Ms. Tant in Room 203 today (9/30).
- The SEHS Homecoming Dance will be next Saturday, October 10th, 7-10pm. Students wishing to bring a date from another school must complete a DATE APPROVAL FORM and submit this form to Ms. McNeal no later than THIS FRIDAY, October 2nd. Only current SEHS students and approved non-SEHS students will be permitted to attend the dance.
- ATTENTION LIVESTOCK SHOW TEAM: All students planning to show at the Effingham County Fair in October are required to attend a fair clean up day this Saturday from 8-12 am at the fairgrounds. Students who are unable to attend must see Ms. Benson by this Wednesday for an alternate work project. Students must either help on Saturday or see Ms. Benson by Wednesday, or they will not show at the county fair.
- Yesterday, the SEHS FFA Wildlife Management Team which includes: Chandler Fritts, Ricky Griffin, Jordon Waters, and Lester Phillips traveled to Bleckley County to compete against 49 schools from central Georgia. These members demonstrated their knowledge and passion for wildlife as the team placed in the top ten! A special congratulation goes out to Sophomore Chandler Fritts who tied for first in the area of aquatic identification and regulation and Sophomore Ricky Griffin who placed second in White-tail deer management and ocular antler estimation. We would like to congratulate our little brothers at SEMS FFA as they placed 2nd over-all in the junior division and will move on to compete at the State competition in November!

- All students planning to attend the FFA trip to the fair must turn in their permission forms to Ms. Benson or Mr. Eaves by the end of the week.
- National Honor Society will have its monthly meeting for current members Tuesday, October 6th at 8:00 in the morning and at 3:35 in the afternoon in room 219. Remember that your dues and community service must be up to date with Ms. Tant and Mrs. Crapse by the end of this week. For NHS students needing community service for this semester, there is a car wash for breast cancer at Kroger on Abercorn Saturday. See Mrs. Crapse for details. All NHS officers need to meet with Mrs. Crapse this Thursday morning, Oct. 1, at 8:00.
- FCS meets every Friday at 7:30 in the morning in the new gym. David Thaxton will be speaking this week, and everyone is welcome! Come hear our awesome band!
- Humanities club will meet Thursday afternoon after school in Ms. Denney's Room 402. Anyone who is interested may attend.
- Homecoming Voting will be on Friday, October 2nd – students may vote during all lunches for our Homecoming Court. On Tuesday, October 6th SENIORS ONLY will be permitted to vote for Homecoming King & Queen.
- All students participating in the FCCLA Knowledge Bowl at the Georgia National Fair need to see Mrs. Lee as soon as possible. Fair contestants should also be prepared to stay after school several days next week.
- HOSA meeting tomorrow morning at 7:45 and 3:30.
- ATTENTION ALL STAFF ~ Dr. Winters has called a brief staff meeting at 3:40 this afternoon in the lunchroom.
- REMINDER ~ Homecoming Committee meeting today immediately following the Staff Meeting. We will meet in the Media Center (AFTERNOON ANNOUNCEMENT ONLY).
