

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

December 12, 2011

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Attention All Students ~ If you intend to be a dual enrollment student for next semester, it is our school policy that you (1) prove acceptance to the college and university, (2) participate in the student/parent meeting with your counselor and complete all county paperwork, (3) be scheduled for college classes, and (4) complete any necessary online forms PRIOR TO December 16th. If you have not completed ALL of these steps PRIOR TO December 16th, you will not be permitted to dually enroll for next. You may, of course, still apply for the Fall of next school year at the institution.
- Do you receive a silent lunch for talking too much in your classes? Well, be silent no more. The NMA Leadership Speech Contest information is now in the counseling office. Please stop by and see Ms. Christensen for the printed materials. The school competition will be January 9th after school. This will decide the school's representative who will compete @ Armstrong Atlantic State University.
- GOT TALENT - WHY NOT SHOW IT OFF! The SEHS 2012 Student Talent Show Extravaganza will be presented Friday, February 10th from 6:00-9:30PM. Talent Show Auditions will be held on January 10th - 12th after school, so plan your act to perfection over the holiday break! This is Your Chance to Let Your Talent Wow an Audience!
- The cheerleaders are sponsoring a Hat & Tiara day Wednesday, December 14th. All proceeds will assist the family of Alexis Strojny. Alexis is a 2011 SEHS alumni and Mustang cheerleader involved in an automobile accident in October. She is currently at home recovering from her injuries.
