

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 8, 2010

- Student Council is sponsoring a fundraiser called "Baby It's Cold Outside" and we will be collecting jackets, coats, and shoes through next Thursday, January 14th for the children in Afghanistan. We have extended the date for an additional week due to slow participation. Remember, if we raise 500 items the school will have a dress down day January 15th, but more importantly we are assisting needy children.
- All members of the livestock team showing swine this semester need to see Ms. Benson today if you haven't done so already.
- Anyone interested in trying out for baseball needs to attend a brief meeting today (1/8) immediately after school at the baseball field.
- Video Game Club will meet today (1/8) after school in Ms. Denney's room 402. Bring your waivers and club dues. Any one interested may attend.
- Anyone interested ~ we are starting a speed and conditioning workout on Tuesday afternoons. Please be dressed and ready to go at 3:45 on the practice field.
- Skills USA is collecting old cell phones as part of a public service campaign. Please bring all old, used, unwanted, or broken cell phones to Mr. Keith in Room 615. Cell phones do not need batteries or accessories, but you can donate those too if you wish. The cell phones will be donated to the Effingham Shelter Alliance and Victim Witness Program. Cell phones will have all information and memory cleared before redistribution.
