

Effingham County School System

College Credit Now

Dual Enrollment Area	Who is eligible to take dual enrollment courses?	Is college admission required to participate?	Part time or full time student status required?	What courses are available?	Which campus does the student attend for the dual enrollment courses?	What credit will be earned?	Who pays for the courses and other associated expenses?	Will courses count against the Hope Scholarship hours cap?
Accel	Eligible student seeking a high school diploma from an eligible Georgia high school; four semester maximum	Dual enrollment students must apply and be accepted at an eligible postsecondary institution meet local system guidelines	Full-time or part-time	Approved academic courses on the Accel course list; academic only, degree level coursework	At or through the high school or college where the student is dually enrolled	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and academic college credit toward an Associate or Baccalaureate Degree	The Georgia Student Finance Commission will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution for tuition, approved fees and a book allowance up to four semesters; some fees may still become the responsibility of the student	No
Hope Grant	Eligible student in grades 11-12 seeking a high school diploma from an eligible Georgia high school	Dual enrollment students must meet local system guidelines and those of the eligible postsecondary institution	Full-time or part-time	Approved courses on Dual Enrollment Directory	At or through the high school or college where the student is dually enrolled	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and college credit toward a certificate or diploma from TCSG postsecondary institutions -	The Georgia Student Finance Commission will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution for tuition as provided for annually through the Georgia General Assembly; Books and some fees will be the responsibility of the student	No

The award amounts received by eligible students and the total amount of funds appropriated for the programs are established each year by the Georgia General Assembly during the prior legislative sessions and are subject to change during the award year. The student or the student's parent/guardian is responsible for all costs related to participation in College Credit Now programs that are not approved for funding through the Georgia Lottery for Education, FTE or other funding sources.

Move On When Ready	Any high school junior or senior who is enrolled full-time and meets all eligibility requirements	MOWR enrollment students must meet all MOWR requirements of the local system and the eligible postsecondary institution	Must be full-time with a minimum of 12 semester hours per semester	Approved academic, career technical, fine arts and elective courses	At or through the college where the student is dually enrolled	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and college credit toward a certificate, diploma or degree.	The Georgia Department of Education will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution using the system's FTE funding; Books and some fees will be the responsibility of the student. A student may be charged for coursework exceeding 13 hours.	No
Residential Programs	High school juniors and seniors at designated program sites; University of West Georgia and Middle Georgia College	Students must meet the specific entrance requirements for the two programs as well as local system requirements	Full-time	Coursework for each student is recommended and approved by the institution's dual enrollment coordinator. Courses required for graduation are approved by the high school counselor.	College	Simultaneously earn high school and college credit	Funded through Accel	No
Joint Enrollment	Not a dual program	Yes	Part-time	Any courses the college offers	College	College only; no high school credit is earned	HOPE Grant or Scholarship/Student	Yes

The award amounts received by eligible students and the total amount of funds appropriated for the programs are established each year by the Georgia General Assembly during the prior legislative sessions and are subject to change during the award year. The student or the student's parent/guardian is responsible for all costs related to participation in College Credit Now programs that are not approved for funding through the Georgia Lottery for Education, FTE or other funding sources.